Eligibility check

* indicates a required field

Before proceeding with the application, please ensure that you meet all eligibility criteria in the Guidelines.

If you have questions about this program or the eligibility criteria, please contact Business Tasmania on 1800 440 026 or ask@business.tas.gov.au.

For an application to be deemed eligible, supporting documentation will need to be provided.

The Department of State Growth may contact you to obtain additional information regarding your application and may utilise information available to it in the normal course of business to assist in informing the assessment of your application.

Please confirm by checking the following eligibility criteria

Only one application per ABN under the program is permitted.

Your business: *

- Holds an active Australian Business Number (ABN) at the time of application
- Holds a Property Identification Code (PIC) *
- Is a beef, sheep, or dairy Primary Producer # (Note: Other livestock or primary production businesses may be considered on a case-by-case basis)
- Is operating in the Local Government Areas of Flinders or King Island (Eligible LGAs)
- Is able to demonstrate that the farm business has experienced, or expects to experience financial impact, causing some hardship, due to the extended dry conditions on King or Flinders Island, for example from: • increased freight costs • increased feed costs • increased pasture recovery costs
- Is NOT an entity that is trading insolvent, under external administration or bankruptcy

* A Property Identification Code (PIC) is a unique eight character alphanumeric code allocated by the Natural Resources and Environment. All properties that run livestock must be registered with NRE and have a PIC allocated to buy, sell and move livestock.

For the purposes of this grant program, an eligible Primary Producer refers to the carrying on of a business of primary production consistent with Taxation Ruling TR97/11 available on the Australian Tax Office website.

If you would like to provide any clarity regarding your eligibility, please include this below
