Right to information

Information you provide to the Department of State Growth and details of assistance may be subject to requests for public disclosure under the Right to Information Act 2009.

Personal information collection

You are providing personal information to the Department of State Growth, which will manage that information in accordance with the Personal Information Protection Act 2004. The personal information collected here will be used by the department for the purpose of acquitting your grant or loan and related activities. Failure to provide this information may result in your acquittal not being accepted or records not being properly maintained. The department may also use the information for related purposes, or disclose it to third parties in circumstances allowed for by law. You have the right to access your personal information by request to the department and you may be charged a fee for this service.

If deemed eligible and offered a grant, recipients will be required to agree to:

1. provide evidence of new drivers being given at least one (1) shift after obtaining their ancillary certificate (taxi);
2. not charge the new taxi driver any direct or indirect costs or charges in connection with making or lodging the application for the grant; and
3. not pass on to the new taxi driver any direct/indirect costs of entry to the industry for new drivers associated with the grant.

New drivers may be surveyed by the department to confirm that these requirements have been met.
