

Organisations - youth arts

* indicates a required field

Program guidelines

This program supports organisations to deliver activities that actively engage young people (aged 0 to 25 years) to develop their creative skills, and enhance their social health and wellbeing.

It is offered in a partnership with Screen Tasmania.

Organisations can submit one application per round, for up to $80,000.

For more information, please visit Organisations - youth arts.

Eligibility

This program is for:

- Tasmanian arts organisations
- Tasmanian local governments
- other Tasmanian organisations delivering an arts activity.

Applicants must also meet Arts Tasmania's general eligibility requirements.

Applications will not be accepted from :

- organisations with no physical presence in Tasmania
- organisations in receipt of multi-year support from Arts Tasmania (including through Arts organisations - multi-year or Cultural heritage organisations - multi-year).
- organisations in receipt of administered funding from the Tasmanian Government (this includes the Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery, the Tasmanian Symphony Orchestra, Ten Days on the Island, the Theatre Royal Management Board, and the Queen Victoria Museum and Art Gallery [Launceston City Council]).

Eligible costs and activities

Organisations can request grant funds towards eligible costs and activities.

These include:

- creative development and research
- presenting work (exhibitions, performances, and publications)
- professional development opportunities
- market and audience development (including promotion)

Arts Tasmania expects that artists are paid fairly for their work. Artist wages and fees must be included in all application budgets. For more information, please visit wages and fees.

Permanent, fixed-term or casual employees (with regular hours that exceed 0.3 of a full-time load) of any part of the Creative Industries, Sport and Visitor Economy Division of the Department of State Growth or Building Tasmania cannot apply to or receive payment through Arts Tasmania's programs.

Grant funds cannot be used to purchase equipment. If your organisation is looking for support to purchase equipment, it can apply to Low-interest loans.

For more information, please see Organisation - youth arts and Arts Tasmania's general eligibility requirements.

Overdue acquittals

If your organisation has received support from Arts Tasmania in the past and the acquittal for this support is now overdue, it is not eligible to receive more support until all overdue acquittal reports are submitted and approved.

Arts Tasmania will contact you if your organisation has any overdue acquittals.

I confirm that I have read and understood the program guidelines and eligibility requirements. ***

Yes

Help with your application

If you have questions about applying to our programs, please email grants@arts.tas.gov.au or call (03) 6165 6666.

You can also book a 15-minute online meeting through Microsoft Teams using Bookings.

For information on previous rounds, please visit past decisions and peer feedback.

Assessment criteria

Arts Tasmania uses peer assessors from the Cultural and Creative Industries Expert Register. Peer assessors are people who work in or are engaged with the arts and cultural sectors such as artists, administrators, or other professionals.

All eligible applications to this round will be assessed by a multi-artform peer panel against the criteria of:

CRITERION

THINGS PEERS MAY CONSIDER

Quality

- Is the activity conceptually strong?
- Why is the activity important?
- Are the people involved experienced, or show the potential to develop and grow?

Planning

- Is the activity financially feasible?
- Is the timeline reasonable and achievable?
- What partnerships are in place to help the activity?

Benefit

- How does the proposed activity benefit the applicant, artists, or the community?
- What is the audience experience?

For more information on assessment, please see how decisions are made.

Tell us about the activities your organisation has planned. Why are they important?

Please include information on:

- the activities that will be delivered with grant funds
- key concepts, ideas, or themes
- key dates or milestones
- why these activities matter to young people, the sector, audiences, or community
- how they will benefit Tasmanian artists, arts workers, or the community
- the target audience and their expected experience (if applicable).

*

Word count:

Must be no more than 800 words.

Tell us about your organisation. What does it do, and who is involved?

Please include information on:

- your organisation and its history
- the key artists and arts workers involved
- why your organisation has chosen to work with those involved
- any partnerships in place to support activities.

You don't need to duplicate information provided in attached guiding documents, or artist CVs or biographies in this section.

*

Word count:

Must be no more than 500 words.

Aboriginal cultural content

If your activity involves Aboriginal cultural content, your application must provide evidence of how you are working with the Aboriginal community. This includes:

- evidence that cultural protocols and Indigenous Cultural and Intellectual Property \(ICIP\) will be respected
- detail around any paid roles that support Aboriginal people to lead activities that involve cultural content or knowledge
- letters of confirmation from any Aboriginal artists or professionals involved
- evidence of plans to engage with the Aboriginal community in a meaningful, collaborative, and culturally safe way.

Please refer to Creative Australia's Protocols for using First Nations cultural and intellectual property in the arts.

The Tasmanian Government's Office of Aboriginal Affairs can provide advice on working with Tasmanian Aboriginal people and organisations.

If you are unsure about this requirement please contact Arts Tasmania at grants@arts.tas.gov.au

Does this activity involve Aboriginal cultural content? ***

- Yes
 No

Please attach your organisation's plans for working together with Aboriginal people and organisations.

This can include evidence of collaborations such as letters, agreements, evidence of relevant training undertaken by team members, policies around cultural safety or other documents speaking to adherence to cultural protocols and/or appropriate use of ICIP.

Children and young people

If your planned activity involves children or young people (under the age of 18), either as active participants or a target audience, you must put measures in place to ensure their safety and wellbeing, in line with Tasmania's Child and Youth Safe Standards. This means abiding by all relevant laws and regulations that apply in Tasmania, and any other jurisdictions where the activity is taking place.

Anyone working with children or young people in Tasmania is required to hold a current Registration to Work with Vulnerable People \(RWVP\). People under the age of 16 years are not required to be registered.

For further guidance, please refer to:

- the Tasmanian Government's Child and Youth Organisations Framework (applies to businesses, organisations and sole traders)
- the Tasmanian Government's Keeping Children Safe resource
- Creative Workplaces' information around national laws and standards for children and young people.

If you are unsure about this requirement, please contact Arts Tasmania at grants@arts.tas.gov.au

Does this activity involve children or young people (under the age of 18)? ***

- Yes
 No

Please provide evidence of the measures in place to ensure the safety and wellbeing of the children or young people involved in this activity.

This can include evidence of current RWVPs for key personnel, evidence of relevant training undertaken by team members, safety policies or risk management plans.

If this application is successful, all people involved with this activity will be required to provide a copy of their Registration to Work with Vulnerable People (RWVP) card to Arts Tasmania.

Certification

* indicates a required field

Assessment of applications

Staff from the Department of State Growth will review all applications received to this program to ensure eligibility. We may contact you to ask for more information if your organisation's eligibility is unclear.

Peers from the Cultural and Creative Industries Expert Register will assess all eligible applications before making a recommendation to the Minister for Arts and Heritage, or an appointed delegate. These peer recommendations will be used as the basis for making decisions around funding and support.

All decisions made by the Minister for Arts and Heritage, or their delegate, are final and can only be appealed if the grounds for appeal are met.

For more information, please visit how are decisions made and past decisions and peer feedback.

Appealing a decision

Arts Tasmania may reconsider a decision if the applicant can demonstrate a proven conflict of interest, error in process or discrimination.

For more information, please read the grounds for appeal.

Working with children

Arts Tasmania is committed to encouraging the involvement of young people and children in the arts, both as participants in the creative process and as audience members. Safeguards to prevent exploitation and harm must be in place for any activities that involve children.

If you receive support from Arts Tasmania, and the supported activity involves people under the age of 18, you are obligated to abide by all relevant laws and regulations that apply in Tasmania, and any other jurisdictions where the supported activity is taking place.

If this application is successful, all people involved with this activity will be required to provide a copy of their Registration to Work with Vulnerable People \(RWVP\) card to Arts Tasmania.

Details on the requirements in Tasmania are available below:

- Keeping Children Safe
- Department of Justice

Logos and acknowledgement

If your application is successful, your organisation must acknowledge the Tasmanian Government in all promotional material and publications associated with the supported activity. This can include posters, online advertisements, books, CDs, or exhibition catalogues.

For more information please visit logos and acknowledgement.

Right to information

Information you provide to the Department of State Growth and details of assistance may be subject to requests for public disclosure under the Right to Information Act 2009.

Personal information collection

You are providing personal information to the Department of State Growth, which will manage that information in accordance with the Personal Information Protection Act 2004. The personal information collected here will be used by the Department for the purpose of assessing your application and related activities. Failure to provide this information may result in your application not being assessed or records not being properly maintained. The Department may also use the information for related purposes, or disclose it to third parties in circumstances allowed for by law. You have the right to access your personal information by request to the Department and you may be charged a fee for this service.
